Work

For ages up to 65

Individual Support

Individual support assists people to undertake daily living activities; access and participate in their community and strengthen their personal relationships.

Short-term Accommodation

Short-term Accommodation (previously known as Respite) allows participants and their families to have some time to themselves.

Participants stay overnight at Ameeyk House where they have their own bedroom and can choose to participate in a range of activities.

Group Support

Kyeema provides a mixture of exciting weekday and weekend group activities for our participants.

Day Programs

Kyeema's Day Programs offers a large variety of activities for participants to indulge in from 8:45am to 3:30pm, five days a week.

Weekend Breakaway Groups

Kyeema offers weekend group activities with separate groups for children, teens and adults.

Social Groups

Kyeema holds social groups for men and women, allowing participants to experience an array of activities.

Special Events

Kyeema holds and takes groups of participants to many various special events throughout the year.

These events encompass a wide range of topics including camping, athletic events such as the Tri-State Games and advocacy events such as the VALiD Have Your Say Conference.
