(4) If an Order is made under subsection (1), the Minister must attempt to have the substance or article referred to in the Order classified as dangerous goods in the ADG Code.

9C Ministerial order suspending or varying operation of regulations

(1) The Minister may, by an order published in the Government Gazette, order that the operation of any regulations under this Act relating to the transport of dangerous goods, other than explosives or HCDG, or the operation of specified parts of such regulations—

(a) is suspended for a specified period; or

(b) is varied in a manner specified in the order.

(2) An order may have effect in relation to the whole of Victoria or to a specified area.

(3) On or before the 6th sitting day after the order is published in the Government Gazette, the Minister must ensure that a copy of the order is laid before each House of the Parliament.

(4) A failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the operation or effect of the order but the Scrutiny of Acts and Regulations Committee of the Parliament may report the failure to each House of Parliament.

(5) An order may be disallowed in whole or in part by either House of Parliament.

(6) Part 5 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 applies to an order as if—

(a) a reference in that Part to a "statutory rule" were a reference to the order; and

- (b) a reference in section 23(1)(c) of that Part to "section 15(1)" were a reference to subsection (3).

10 Adoption of ADG Code

- (1) Without limiting the generality of section 52(3)(c), any regulation made under this Act may incorporate or adopt by reference the provisions of the Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods by Road and Rail (Seventh edition or subsequent edition) wholly or partially or as amended by the regulation.

(b) only with respect to activities that are carried out under the Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990, the Petroleum Act 1998, the Mines (Aluminium Agreement) Act 1961 and the Extractive Industries (Lysterfield) Act 1986 and that relate to a mine, quarry or petroleum site.

(3) In subsection (2), authorised person means—

(a) a person—

(i) who is employed in the Department of Primary Industries under the Public Administration Act 2004; and

(ii) who, in the opinion of the Authority, has sufficient knowledge and experience to competently exercise or perform the relevant power or function; or

S. 10B(3)(b)
substituted by
No. 6/2009
s. 49(2).

(b) the Chief Inspector under the Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990.

(4) Despite subsection (2), the only person to whom the Authority may delegate its power to appoint inspectors in relation to the matters to which paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection apply is the Secretary to the Department of Primary Industries.

(5) The Authority may, by instrument in writing, delegate all or any of the powers or functions of an inspector—

(a) to any officer of the Roads Corporation; or

(b) to any member of the police force or officer or member of a fire authority (not being a volunteer fire brigade under the Metropolitan Fire Brigades Act 1958 or a volunteer brigade under the Country Fire Authority Act 1958); or

- (c) to any office holder, officer or employee of a municipal council—if it is satisfied that that person is capable of exercising the powers or performing the functions to be delegated.

- (6) An instrument of delegation made under this section must specify when, where and in what circumstances the delegation may be exercised.

Note

Section 42A(1)(b) of the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984 provides that a person delegating a power or function may specify conditions or limitations on the exercise of the power or function by the delegate.

10E Circumstances in which information may be disclosed

- (1) Nothing in section 10D precludes a person from doing any of the following—
- (a) producing a document to a court in the course of criminal proceedings;
 - (b) producing a document to a court or the Tribunal in the course of proceedings under this Act;

- (c) disclosing to a court in the course of criminal proceedings, or to a court or the Tribunal in the course of proceedings under this Act, any matter or thing arising under this Act or coming to the notice of the person—
 - (i) in the performance of official duties; or
 - (ii) in the performance of a function or exercise of a power of, or on behalf of, the Authority;
 - (d) producing a document or disclosing information with respect to a matter or thing arising under this Act to any of the following—
 - (i) the Secretary to the Department of Treasury and Finance;
 - (ii) a corresponding Authority;
 - (iii) an authority, department or public body, within the meaning of the Financial Management Act 1994, that has functions in relation to particular matters relating to occupational health and safety or dangerous goods arising under this or another Act;
 - (iv) a committee of the Parliament;
 - (v) a person or body approved (in writing) by the Governor in Council for the purposes of this section;
 - (e) producing a document or disclosing information that is required or permitted by or under this or another Act to be produced or disclosed (as the case may be).

- (2) The Minister must cause a report of requests for the approval of persons or bodies by the Governor in Council under subsection (1)(d)(v) to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 14 sitting days of that House after 30 June in each year.
- (3) The report must include the following matters in respect of each request—
- (a) the name of the person sought to be approved;
 - (b) the reason for the request;
 - (c) the date of the request;
 - (d) whether the request was approved or refused.

- (b) any container, equipment, fittings, piping, appliance or other thing that is being, has been, or is likely to be, used—
 - (i) for, or in connection with, the manufacture, supply, transfer, storage, transport, sale or use of dangerous goods; or
 - (ii) for the import into Victoria of explosives.

Notes

- 1 Place is defined in section 3 as including a vehicle, ship or boat.
 - 2 The powers conferred by this section are limited in respect of a part of a place that is used only for residential purposes (see section 16).
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), it is a reasonable time to enter a place if the inspector reasonably believes that there is an immediate risk to the health or safety of a person at the place as a result of the presence of dangerous goods, or of any thing described in subsection (1)(b), that the inspector reasonably believes to be at or in the place.

13A Power to inspect vehicles

- (1) An inspector may stop, detain, inspect, examine or move to some suitable place for inspection and examination any vehicle, ship or boat used, or that the inspector believes on reasonable grounds is being, or is likely to be, used for the transport of dangerous goods.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) the inspector may require the owner of, or the person having the control or management of, the vehicle, ship or boat to move the vehicle, ship or boat to the suitable place; or

- (b) the Authority may engage a suitably qualified person to move the vehicle, ship or boat to the suitable place, and may recover the cost of doing so from the owner of the vehicle, ship or boat.
- (3) A requirement under subsection (2)(a) may be made—
 - (a) orally; or
 - (b) by notice in writing served on the owner of, or the person having the control or management of, the vehicle, ship or boat that specifies by when the vehicle, ship or boat must be taken to the suitable place.
- (4) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (2)(a).

Penalty: 60 penalty units for a natural person;
300 penalty units for a body corporate.

Note

The powers conferred by this section are limited in respect of a part of a place that is used only for residential purposes (see section 16).

- (1) An inspector exercising a power under this Subdivision in relation to a place may do any of the following—
 - (a) inspect, examine and make enquiries at the place;
 - (b) inspect and examine any thing (including a document) at the place;
 - (c) bring any equipment or materials to the place that may be required;

s. 13C

- (d) seize any thing (including a document) at the place that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act;
 - (e) seize any thing at the place for further examination or testing but only if the inspector reasonably believes that the examination or testing is reasonably necessary and cannot be reasonably conducted on site;
 - (f) take photographs or measurements or make sketches or recordings;
 - (g) exercise any other power conferred on the inspector by this Act;
 - (h) do any other thing that is reasonably necessary for the purpose of the inspector performing his or her functions or exercising his or her powers under this Act.
- (2) The inspector may use any vehicle, ship or boat in which seized dangerous goods are present for the removal and detention of those goods, and the Authority must pay to the owner of the vehicle, ship or boat reasonable compensation for that use (unless the owner is found guilty of an offence under this Act in relation to those goods).

S. 13C

13C Power to require production of documents etc.

- (1) An inspector who enters a place under this Subdivision may—
- (a) require a person to produce a document or part of a document located at the place that is in the person's possession or control; and
 - (b) examine that document or part; and

- (c) require a person at the place to answer any questions put by the inspector.
- (2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).
Penalty: 60 penalty units for a natural person;
300 penalty units for a body corporate.
- (3) Before requiring a person to produce a document or part of a document or to answer questions under subsection (1), an inspector—
 - (a) must produce his or her identity card for inspection by the person and warn the person that a refusal or failure to comply with the requirement, without reasonable excuse, is an offence; and
 - (b) must inform the person that he or she may refuse or fail to answer any question if answering the question would tend to incriminate him or her.
- (4) A person is not liable to be prosecuted for an offence against subsection (2) if the inspector concerned failed to comply with subsection (3).

Notes

- 1 The powers conferred by this section are limited in respect of a part of a place that is used only for residential purposes (see section 16).
- 2 This section does not affect legal professional privilege or client legal privilege (see section 19G) or, in the case of a requirement to answer questions, the privilege against self-incrimination (see section 19F).

13D Power to take samples

- (1) An inspector who enters a place under this Subdivision may (without payment)—
 - (a) take samples of any thing at the place that may be required for analysis;
 - (b) require the occupier or master or person in charge or apparently in charge of the place to give the inspector samples of any thing at the place that may be required for analysis;
 - (c) require a person at the place who is in possession of any thing at the place to give the inspector samples of the thing to enable the thing to be analysed.
- (2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(c).

Penalty: 60 penalty units for a natural person;
300 penalty units for a body corporate.
- (3) If an inspector intends to take a sample, he or she must notify the person who has the management or control of the place for the time being of that intention.
- (4) Unless it is unsafe to do so, after taking or receiving a sample the inspector must—
 - (a) divide it into as many parts as are necessary, mark, and seal or fasten up, each part in a way that the nature of the sample allows; and
 - (b) if the person who must be notified under subsection (3) requires the inspector to give him or her a part, give one part to that person; and
 - (c) keep one part for future comparison.

- (5) If it is determined that the sample is to be analysed, the inspector must submit another part to an analyst for that purpose.

14 Announcement on entry

- (1) Immediately on entering a place under Division 3, an inspector must take all reasonable steps to notify the occupier or apparent occupier of the place of the entry, and to produce his or her identity card for inspection by that person.
- (2) However, an inspector is not required to comply with subsection (1) if—
 - (a) to do so would defeat the purpose for which the place was entered, or would cause unreasonable delay; or
 - (b) the person is already aware that the inspector has entered the place, or was notified in advance of when the inspector would enter.

14A Report to be given about entry

- (1) An inspector who enters a place under Division 3 must give a report concerning the entry when, or as soon as is practicable after, he or she leaves the place to the occupier or apparent occupier of the place.
- (2) The report must be in writing and must include—
 - (a) the time of the entry and departure; and
 - (b) the purpose of the entry; and
 - (c) a description of the things done while at the place; and
 - (d) a summary of the inspector's observations while at the place; and

- (e) the procedure for contacting the Authority and the inspector for further details of the entry; and
 - (f) the procedure for seeking a review of any decision made by the inspector during the entry.
- (3) If the inspector takes photographs or makes sketches or other recordings under section 13B(1)(f), the report must also include a statement—
- (a) that the photographs have been taken, or that the sketches or recordings have been made; and
 - (b) that they are, or will be, available for inspection at a specified place.

- (1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant in relation to a particular place if the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that there is, or may be within the next 72 hours, a particular thing (including a document) at the place that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act.
- (2) A magistrate may issue the search warrant if he or she is satisfied by evidence on oath, whether oral or by affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or may be within 72 hours, a particular thing (including a document) at the place that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act.

- (3) The search warrant may authorise a named inspector and any assistants the inspector considers necessary—
- (a) to enter the place or part of the place named or described in the warrant; and
 - (b) to search for the thing named or described in the warrant.
- (4) In addition to any other requirement, the search warrant must state—
- (a) the offence suspected; and
 - (b) the place to be searched; and
 - (c) a description of the thing for which the search is to be made; and
 - (d) any conditions to which the warrant is subject; and
 - (e) whether entry is authorised to be made at any time, or during specified hours; and
 - (f) that the warrant authorises entry on only one occasion; and
 - (g) a day, not later than 7 days after the day the warrant is issued, on which it ceases to have effect.
- (5) A search warrant must be issued in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 and in the form prescribed under that Act.
- (6) The rules that apply to search warrants mentioned in the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to search warrants under this section.

- (1) Before executing a search warrant, the inspector named in the warrant or an assistant to the inspector must—
 - (a) announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the place; and
 - (b) give any person at the place an opportunity to allow that entry.
- (2) However, the inspector or an assistant to the inspector need not comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes, on reasonable grounds, that immediate entry to the place is needed to ensure—
 - (a) the safety of any person; or
 - (b) that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

16 Places used for residential purposes

- (1) Despite anything else in this Part, the powers of an inspector under this Part in relation to entering a place are not exercisable in respect of any part of a place that is used only for residential purposes except—
 - (a) with the consent of the occupier for the time being of the place; or
 - (b) under the authority conferred by a search warrant.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), any common property in a subdivision of land is not a place used only for residential purposes.

Examples:

Examples of common property include a storeroom associated with a swimming pool at an apartment building (at which, for instance, chlorine might be stored); a cleaner's cupboard under the stairs of a block of flats; and a room containing heating or cooling equipment for an apartment building.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a place is not being used for residential purposes merely because temporary or casual sleeping or other accommodation is provided in the place for vehicle drivers.

Example

The sleeping area in the rear of a truck's cabin is not a place being used for residential purposes.

 - (a) the Authority considers it necessary to retain the thing because it may afford evidence in proceedings, that have been or that may be commenced, for an offence against this Act; or
 - (b) the thing is forfeited to the Authority under this Act; or
 - (c) the Authority is otherwise authorised (by a law or court order) to retain, destroy or dispose of the thing.
- (2) The thing may be returned either unconditionally or on any terms and conditions that the Authority considers appropriate to eliminate or reduce any risks to the safety of any person or of damage to property arising from, or in relation to, the thing.
- (3) If the Authority imposes terms or conditions on the return of a thing, the owner must comply with each of those terms and conditions.

16B Forfeiture of seized things

- (1) Any thing (including a document), other than high consequence dangerous goods or explosives or containers used for or in connection with high consequence dangerous goods or explosives, that an inspector has seized and retained under this Part is forfeited to the Authority if the Authority—
- (a) cannot find its owner despite making reasonable enquiries; or
 - (b) cannot return it to the owner despite making reasonable efforts; or
 - (c) considers it necessary to retain the thing to prevent the commission of an offence against this Act.

Note

The forfeiture of high consequence dangerous goods or explosives or containers used for or in connection with high consequence dangerous goods or explosives is dealt with in sections 47A to 47D.

- (2) If a thing is forfeited to the Authority under subsection (1)(c), the Authority must notify (in writing) the owner accordingly, setting out how the owner may seek a review of the decision to forfeit the thing, unless the Authority cannot find the owner despite making reasonable enquiries.

 - (b) has contravened this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated—may issue to the person a provisional direction in writing requiring the person to remedy the contravention or likely contravention or the matters or activities occasioning it.
- (3) A provisional direction must—
 - (a) state the delegate's opinion and reasons for the opinion; and
 - (b) specify the contravention; and
 - (c) specify the day (being a day more than seven days after the direction is issued) before which the contravention or likely contravention or the matters or activities occasioning it must be remedied; and

17B Power to issue non-disturbance notice

- (1) An inspector who has entered a place under this Part may issue a non-disturbance notice to the occupier or apparent occupier of the place requiring that person—
 - (a) to stop the use or movement of, or interference with, any specified thing at the place; and

- (b) to prevent the disturbance of the thing or a specified area of the place where the thing is located—if the inspector reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so to facilitate the performance of his or her functions or the exercise of his or her powers under this Act in relation to the place or any thing at the place.

- (2) A non-disturbance notice must specify the period (of no more than 7 days) for which it applies and set out—
 - (a) the obligations of the person to whom it is issued; and
 - (b) the penalty for contravening the notice; and
 - (c) how the person may seek a review of the issue of the notice; and
 - (d) a statement of the effect of section 17I (proceedings for offences not affected by notices).
- (3) If an inspector considers it necessary to do so, he or she may issue one or more subsequent non-disturbance notices to an occupier or apparent occupier, whether before or after the expiry of the previous notice, each of which must comply with subsection (2).
- (4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a non-disturbance notice issued to the person is guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding—
 - (a) in the case of a natural person, 500 penalty units; or

17C Power to issue improvement notice

- (1) If an inspector reasonably believes that a person—
- (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (b) has contravened such a provision in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated—the inspector may issue to the person an improvement notice requiring the person to remedy the contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities causing the contravention or likely contravention.

- (2) An improvement notice must—
- (a) state the basis for the inspector's belief on which the issue of the notice is based; and
 - (b) specify the provision of this Act that the inspector considers has been, or is likely to be, contravened; and
 - (c) specify a date (with or without a time) by which the person is required to remedy the contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities causing the contravention or likely contravention, that the inspector considers is reasonable having regard to the severity of any relevant risks and the nature of the contravention or likely contravention; and

- (d) set out the penalty for contravening the notice; and
 - (e) state how the person may seek a review of the issue of the notice; and
 - (f) include a statement of the effect of section 17I (proceedings for offences not affected by notices).
- (3) An improvement notice may include directions concerning the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities causing the contravention or likely contravention, to which the notice relates and may, in particular, include—
- (a) a direction that if the person has not remedied the contravention, likely contravention, matters or activities (as the case may be) by the date and time (if any) specified in the notice, an activity to which the notice relates is to cease until an inspector has certified in writing that the contravention, likely contravention, matters or activities have been remedied; and
 - (b) interim directions, or interim conditions on the carrying on of any activities to which the notice relates, that the inspector considers necessary to minimise risks to the safety of any person or of damage to any property.
- (4) A person to whom an improvement notice is issued must comply with the notice.

Penalty: 500 penalty units for a natural person;

17D Power to issue prohibition notice

- (1) If an inspector reasonably believes that—
- (a) an activity involving the manufacture, supply, transfer, storage, transport, sale or use of dangerous goods, or the import into Victoria of explosives, is occurring at a place that involves or will involve an immediate risk to the safety of any person or of damage to any property; or
 - (b) such an activity may occur at a place that, if it occurs, will involve an immediate risk to the safety of any person or of damage to any property—

the inspector may issue to a person who has, or appears to have, control over the activity a prohibition notice prohibiting the carrying on of the activity, or the carrying on of the activity in a specified way, until an inspector has certified in writing that the matters that give, or that will give, rise to the risk have been remedied.

- (2) A prohibition notice must—
- (a) state the basis for the inspector's belief on which the issue of the notice is based; and

- (b) specify the activity which the inspector believes involves or will involve the risk and the matters which give, or will give, rise to the risk; and
 - (c) if the inspector believes that the activity involves a contravention, or likely contravention, of a provision of this Act, specify that provision and state the basis for that belief; and
 - (d) set out the penalty for contravening the notice; and
 - (e) state how the person may seek a review of the issue of the notice; and
 - (f) include a statement of the effect of section 17I (proceedings for offences not affected by notices).
- (3) A prohibition notice may include directions on the measures to be taken to remedy the risk, activities or matters to which the notice relates, or the contravention, or likely contravention, mentioned in subsection (2)(c).
- (4) A prohibition notice that prohibits the carrying on of an activity in a specified way may do so by specifying one or more of the following—
- (a) a place, or part of a place, at which the activity is not to be carried out;
 - (b) any thing that is not to be used in connection with the activity;
 - (c) any procedure that is not to be followed in connection with the activity.
- (5) A person to whom a prohibition notice is issued must comply with the notice.

Penalty: 500 penalty units for a natural person;
2500 penalty units for a body corporate.

- (1) A provisional direction, non-disturbance notice, improvement notice or prohibition notice may be given or issued to a person—

- (a) by delivering it personally to the person, or by sending it by post or facsimile to the person's usual or last known place of residence or business; or
 - (b) by leaving it for the person at the person's usual or last known place of residence or business with a person who is apparently over 16 years and who apparently resides or works there; or
 - (c) by leaving it for the person at the place to which the direction or notice relates with a person who is apparently over 16 years and who apparently is the occupier for the time being of the place.
- (2) If the person with whom a provisional direction, non-disturbance notice, improvement notice or prohibition notice is left is not the occupier of the place to which the direction or notice relates, he or she must give a copy of the direction or notice to the occupier of the place as soon as possible.
- Penalty: 5 penalty units for a natural person;
25 penalty units for a body corporate.
- (3) The occupier of a place to which a provisional direction, non-disturbance notice, improvement notice or prohibition notice relates must, as soon as possible after receiving the direction or notice—
- (a) bring the notice to the attention of each person who is affected by the notice (unless the person is aware of the notice); and
 - (b) prominently display a copy of the notice at or near the place, or part of the place, that is affected by the notice.

- (1) This section applies if an inspector believes on reasonable grounds that danger to any person or property exists, or may arise, from any dangerous goods—
- (a) that are damaged or spilled; or
 - (b) that are in a container that is damaged; or
 - (c) that are in a container that is dislodged from a vehicle, ship or boat.
- (2) An inspector may issue a direction to the owner, or the person in possession or control, or who last had possession or control, of the dangerous goods or container—
- (a) to render harmless the dangerous goods or container; or
 - (b) to dispose of, or remove, the spilled dangerous goods and render harmless anything contaminated by them—
- by safe means within the period of time specified in the direction.
- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a direction issued under subsection (2).

Penalty: 100 penalty units for a natural person;
400 penalty units for a body corporate.

- (4) If the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that there is an immediate danger to any person or property, the inspector may take any action that he or she considers necessary for—
- (a) the destruction, rendering harmless, disposal or removal of the dangerous goods or container; or

- (b) the destruction or rendering harmless of anything contaminated by the spilled dangerous goods.
- (5) The inspector may also take any action described in subsection (4) if—
- (a) the inspector has issued a direction under subsection (2) in relation to the dangerous goods or container, or any thing contaminated by the dangerous goods, and he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the person to whom the direction was issued—
 - (i) has failed to comply with the direction; or
 - (ii) is likely to use unsafe means to render harmless, dispose of or remove the dangerous goods, container or thing—within the period of time specified in the direction; or
 - (b) the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that a direction under subsection (2)—
 - (i) cannot be served on the owner or any other person to whom the direction may be issued; or
 - (ii) cannot be served on the owner or such a person without a delay which may increase the danger to any person or property that exists or that may arise from the dangerous goods, container or thing; or
 - (c) the owner of the dangerous goods, container or thing authorises the inspector in writing to destroy, render harmless, dispose of or remove the dangerous goods, container or thing.

- (6) If an inspector takes any action under subsection (4) or (5), the Authority may recover the costs of that action—
- (a) if the dangerous goods, container or thing was or were present at a place other than a vehicle, ship or boat—from any occupier of the place; or
 - (b) if the dangerous goods, container or thing was or were present on a vehicle, ship or boat—from the owner of the vehicle, ship or boat.

20A Internal review

S. 20A
inserted by
No. 31/2005
s. 12.

- (1) An eligible person in relation to a reviewable decision, other than a decision made by the Authority, may apply to the Authority for a review of the decision within—
 - (a) 14 days after the day on which the decision first came to the eligible person's notice; or
 - (b) such longer period as the Authority allows.
- (2) The application must be in the form approved (in writing) by the Authority.
- (3) If an application is made to the Authority in accordance with this section, the Authority must make a decision—
 - (a) to affirm or vary the reviewable decision; or
 - (b) to set aside the reviewable decision and to substitute another decision that the Authority considers appropriate.
- (4) The Authority must give a written notice to the applicant setting out—
 - (a) the Authority's decision under subsection (3) and the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) the findings on material questions of fact that led to the decision, referring to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based—and must do so within 14 days after the application is made or, if the reviewable decision was made under section 17C(3)(a) or 17D(1), within 7 days after the application is made.
- (5) If the Authority has not notified an applicant of a decision in accordance with subsection (4), the Authority is taken to have made a decision to affirm the reviewable decision.

s. 20B

- (6) The making of an application under this section does not affect the operation of the reviewable decision or prevent the taking of any action to implement it unless the Authority, on its own initiative or on the application of the applicant for review, stays the operation of the decision pending the determination of the review.
- (7) The Authority must make a decision on an application for a stay within 24 hours after the making of that application.
- (8) If the Authority has not made a decision in accordance with subsection (7), the Authority is taken to have made a decision to grant a stay.
- (9) The Authority may attach any conditions to a stay of the operation of a reviewable decision that it considers appropriate.

20B Review by the Tribunal

- (1) A person may apply to the Tribunal for a review of—
 - (a) a reviewable decision made by the Authority; or
 - (b) a decision made, or taken to have been made, by the Authority under section 20A in respect of a reviewable decision (including a decision concerning a stay of the operation of the reviewable decision)— if the person is an eligible person in relation to the reviewable decision.

S. 20B(1A)
inserted by
No. 66/2008
s. 12(1).

- (1A) However, a person may only apply to the Tribunal for a review of a reviewable decision made by the Authority under the regulations if—
 - (a) the person is an eligible person in relation to the reviewable decision; and

- (b) a review has been conducted in the prescribed manner by the Authority as a result of which—
- (i) the reviewable decision has been confirmed; or
 - (ii) an earlier decision has been set aside and the reviewable decision has been made in place of the earlier decision.
- (2) The application must be made—
- (a) if the decision is to forfeit a thing (including a document) seized under Part II, within 28 days after the day on which the decision first came to the applicant's notice; or
 - (ab) if the decision is made under the regulations, within 14 days after the person received notice of the confirmation of the decision or the new decision, as the case may be; or
 - (b) in the case of any other decision, within 14 days after the day on which the decision first came to the applicant's notice; or
 - (c) if the Authority is required by the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 to give the applicant a statement of reasons, within 14 days after the day on which the applicant is given the statement—
- whichever period ends last.

PART III—LICENCES

21 Licences

S. 21(1)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (1) Where a person is required by the regulations to hold a licence, the Authority may issue a licence to that person.

S. 21(2)
amended by
No. 66/2008
s. 13.

- (2) A person who does not hold a licence and who carries out any action (other than an action to which section 21AA(9) refers) in respect of which a licence is required by the regulations to be held by that person is guilty of an offence.

S. 21(3)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (3) Where the regulations require the occupier of premises containing a prescribed quantity or class of dangerous goods to hold a licence, the Authority may require the applicant for such a licence—

S. 21(3)(a)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (a) to carry out such investigations, including hazard analysis studies and risk evaluation studies, as the Authority thinks fit;

S. 21(3)(b)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (b) to carry out any such studies to a standard acceptable to the Authority and in such detail as the Authority may direct; and

S. 21(3)(c)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (c) where the Authority is not satisfied with the standard, content or detail of any such studies carried out by the applicant, to bear the costs of further investigations to be carried out by consultants appointed by the Authority.

S. 21(4)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a licence shall, unless previously suspended or revoked, remain in force for the prescribed period and may be renewed by the Authority for a prescribed period on receipt by the Authority of a written application for renewal from the licensee.

(5) Where on application by a licensee another licence of the same class as that which the licensee already holds is issued to that licensee and—

amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (a) the applicant requests; or
- (b) the Authority determines—

(6) The Authority may refuse to issue a licence or to renew a licence—

S. 21(6)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (a) where the Authority believes that the risk of injury or damage to persons or property which may be incurred by an accident involving dangerous goods is too great in the circumstances to justify the issue or renewal; or

S. 21(6)(a)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

- (b) where the Authority considers that the applicant is not a suitable person to hold the licence.

S. 21(6)(b)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 22(g).

(7) Where the Authority decides to refuse to issue or renew a licence, the Authority shall send by post to the applicant written notice of the refusal setting out the reasons for the refusal.

21AA Failure to hold licence and other offences relating to the transport of dangerous goods

- (1) This section does not apply in relation to a HCDG licence or an explosives licence.
- (2) A prime contractor must not use a vehicle to transport dangerous goods (other than as the driver of the vehicle) if—
- (a) the regulations require the vehicle to be licensed to transport the goods; and
 - (b) the vehicle is not licensed under the regulations.

Penalty: If the failure results in death or serious injury to a person—

- (a) in the case of an individual,
500 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate,
2500 penalty units.

In any other case—

- (c) in the case of an individual,
500 penalty units; or
- (d) in the case of a body corporate,
2500 penalty units.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), prime contractor, in respect of the transport of dangerous goods by road, means the person who, in conducting a business for or involving the transport of dangerous goods by road, has undertaken to be responsible for, or is responsible for, the transport of the goods by road.

- (4) An offence against subsection (2) is an indictable offence.

Note

However, the offence may be heard and determined summarily (see section 28 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009).

Note to

- (5) A person must not consign dangerous goods for transport by road on a vehicle if the person knows, or reasonably ought to know that—
- (a) the regulations require the vehicle to be licensed to transport the goods; and
 - (b) the vehicle is not licensed under the regulations.

Penalty: In the case of a natural person,
100 penalty units;
In the case of a body corporate,
500 penalty units.

- (6) A person must not employ, engage or permit another person to drive a vehicle transporting dangerous goods if the other person is required by the regulations to be licensed to drive the vehicle and is not so licensed.

Penalty: If the failure results in death or serious injury to a person—

- (a) in the case of an individual,
500 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate,
2500 penalty units.

s. 21A

In any other case—

- (c) in the case of an individual,
500 penalty units; or
- (d) in the case of a body corporate,
2500 penalty units.

- (7) An offence against subsection (6) is an indictable offence.

21A Special provisions for HCDG and explosives licences

- (1) If the regulations require a person to hold a licence to manufacture, transport or store explosives or high consequence dangerous goods, the Authority may require—

- (a) the applicant to provide a security plan for the activities to be covered by the licence;
 - (b) the licensee, at any time during the currency of the licence, to provide a security plan for the activities covered by the licence.
 - (2) The security plan must—
 - (a) be based on a risk assessment of those activities; and
 - (b) contain the prescribed particulars.
 - (3) The Authority must not issue a licence to import, export, manufacture, store, sell, supply, use, handle, transfer, transport or dispose of high consequence dangerous goods unless the Authority is of the opinion that—
 - (a) the applicant for the licence, if a natural person—
 - (i) is of the age required by the Authority for the licence applied for; and
 - (ii) has provided specified proof of identity; and
 - (iii) has provided consent and sufficient information for the Authority to obtain known information concerning the person to determine whether the person has satisfied the requirements prescribed by the regulations to hold an HCDG licence; and
 - (b) the applicant for the licence, if a body corporate—
 - (i) has provided details of the incorporation of the body; and
 - (ii) has provided specified proof of identity of such of the directors and persons concerned in the management of the

- body corporate that are required by the Authority; and
- (iii) such of the directors and the persons concerned in the management of the body corporate that are required by the Authority have provided their consent and sufficient information for the Authority to obtain known information concerning the director or person to determine whether they have satisfied the requirements prescribed by the regulations to be a director or person concerned in the management of a body corporate that holds an HCDG licence; and
- (c) the applicant for the licence has provided the consent and sufficient information from any person who is to be responsible for the security of the goods under the HCDG licence for the Authority to obtain known information concerning the person to determine whether the person has satisfied the requirements prescribed by the regulations to be responsible for the security of the goods under the HCDG licence; and
- (d) the applicant for the licence has demonstrated a need for access to the high consequence dangerous goods that is declared by Order in Council under section 9B(1B) to be a lawful need in relation to those goods; and
- (e) the applicant for the licence has satisfied any other requirements prescribed by the regulations.

- (4) The Authority must not issue a licence to import, export, manufacture, store, sell, use, transport, handle or transfer explosives unless the Authority is of the opinion that the requirements of subsection (3)(a), (b), (c), and (e) with necessary modifications to apply in relation to an explosives licence are satisfied.
- (5) Nothing in this section limits any other powers of the Authority under this Act in relation to the issue of licences for dangerous goods or the powers to make regulations for or with respect to the issue of licences for dangerous goods.
- (6) In this section—

known information means any records concerning a person kept by or on behalf of—

- (a) the Chief Commissioner of Police appointed under the Police Regulation Act 1958; or
- (b) any person holding a position equivalent to that of the Chief Commissioner of Police in the Commonwealth or in a State or Territory of the Commonwealth or any other country; or
- (c) any other prescribed person or body.

specified proof of identity, in relation to a person or director, means proof of the identity of the person or director in the same manner and to the same extent as is required for an identification reference under the Financial Transactions Reports Act 1988 of the Commonwealth.

- (4) An application for review of a decision of the Authority may be made to the Tribunal at any time within the period of 14 days of receiving the licence.
- S. 23(4) amended by Nos 48/1989 s. 17, 13/1996 s. 22(i), 52/1998 s. 311(Sch. 1 item 20.9).

- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply in relation to a decision of the Authority under the regulations which is prescribed by the regulations to be a reviewable decision.
- S. 23(5) inserted by No. 66/2008 s. 16.

24 Authority may amend, suspend or revoke licences

- (1) The Authority may amend, suspend or revoke any licence.
- S. 24(1) amended by No. 13/1996 s. 22(j).

- (1A) Without limiting the power of the Authority under subsection (1), the regulations may prescribe grounds on which the Authority may, or must, amend, suspend or revoke a licence.
- S. 24(1A) inserted by No. 66/2008 s. 17.

- (2) Where a document evidencing a licence has been issued by the Authority and that licence is amended, suspended or revoked, the licensee shall surrender the document to an inspector on demand.
- S. 24(2) amended by No. 13/1996 s. 22(j).

- (3) A licence shall not be suspended for longer than six months.

- (4) Where the Authority decides to amend, suspend or revoke a licence, the licence shall not be amended, suspended or revoked unless and until the licensee receives one month's written notice of that decision setting out the reasons for it, except where in the opinion of the Authority there exists a significant danger to persons or property in which case the amendment, suspension or revocation of the licence shall take effect immediately.
- S. 24(4) amended by No. 13/1996 s. 22(j).

inserted by
No. 67/2004
s. 8.

(5) If—

- (a) an HCDG licence has been issued on the basis of demonstrating a lawful need for access to high consequence dangerous goods that has been declared by Order in Council under section 9B(1B); and
- (b) after the issue of the licence, an Order in Council is made revoking that lawful need—the Authority must revoke the licence or the part of the licence that relates to that lawful need within 3 months after the notice of the Order in Council is published in the Government Gazette.

inserted by
No. 67/2004
s. 8.

- (6) Without limiting any of the powers of the Authority to amend, suspend or revoke any licence on any ground or for any reason, the Authority may amend, suspend or revoke an HCDG licence if the person who holds the licence has been found guilty of an offence against this Act or the Terrorism (Community Protection) Act 2003.

dangerous goods

amended by Nos 82/1995
s. 192(1), 13/1996
s. 22(m).

(1) A licensee, as soon as is practicable after the issue of the licence and at three-monthly intervals thereafter, or an occupier of premises of a prescribed class, at three-monthly intervals after a prescribed date, shall send by post to the Authority the following information in relation to all dangerous goods then present at the licensed premises (not being a vehicle, ship or boat) or at the prescribed class of premises—

- (a) the technical names, chemical names and trade names (if any) of the dangerous goods;
- (b) the quantity of each of the dangerous goods;
- (c) details of the type and capacity of each container in which the dangerous goods are kept and the extent to which each container is filled with dangerous goods; and
- (d) any other prescribed matter relating to the dangerous goods.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply—

- (a) to holders of classes of licences;
- (b) to dangerous goods; or
- (c) to quantities of dangerous goods—

which are prescribed as exempt for the purposes of that subsection.

36 Trespassers etc. in relation to explosives

- (1) A person who without lawful authority or excuse (the burden of proving which is on that person)—
 - (a) is found in or on any boat, ship or vehicle carrying explosives;
 - (b) is found in or on or in the vicinity of any magazine or premises where explosives are kept or stored;
 - (c) breaks into or interferes with any container used for keeping or storing explosives; or
 - (d) removes any explosives from any such boat, ship, vehicle, magazine, premises or container—is guilty of an offence.

- (2) A person found contravening subsection (1) may be removed from the boat, ship, vehicle, magazine or premises or from the vicinity of the container—
 - (a) by a member of the police force;
 - (b) by the person for the time being in charge or the keeper or occupier of the magazine or premises; or
 - (c) by the person for the time being in charge of the boat, ship or vehicle.

37 Offences in relation to explosives

- (1) A person who negligently or carelessly—
 - (a) prepares for use;
 - (b) explodes; or
 - (c) causes to be exploded—any explosives so as to endanger the life of a person or the safety of any property is guilty of an offence.
- (2) A consignor, consignee or other person who by wilful act, neglect or default or by improper refusal to accept delivery of any explosive from any person authorized to transport explosives by a licence causes a person to contravene this Act is guilty of an offence.
- (3) A person who delivers explosives to a vehicle or boat knowing that the transport of the explosives in the vehicle or boat would be in contravention of this Act is guilty of an offence.

PART VII—PROCEEDINGS AND ENFORCEMENT

40 Proceedings may be brought by the Authority, inspectors and the police

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be brought only by—
 - (a) the Authority; or
 - (b) an inspector with the written authorisation of the Authority (either generally or in a particular case); or
 - (c) a member of the police force.
- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1)(b) is sufficient authority to continue proceedings in any case where the court amends the charge, warrant or summons.
- (3) An inspector who brings proceedings may conduct the proceedings before the court.
- (4) The Authority must issue, and publish in the Government Gazette, general guidelines for or with respect to the prosecution of offences under this Act.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects the ability of the Director of Public Prosecutions to bring proceedings for an indictable offence against this Act.

40A Procedure if prosecution is not brought

S. 40A
inserted by
No. 31/2005

- (1) If—
 - (a) a person considers that an offence against this Act has occurred; and
 - (b) no prosecution has been brought in respect of that occurrence within 6 months after that occurrence—

the person may request in writing that the Authority bring a prosecution in respect of that occurrence.
- (2) Within 3 months after the Authority receives a request it must—
 - (a) investigate the matter; and
 - (b) following the investigation, advise (in writing) the person whether a prosecution has been, or will be, brought, or give reasons why a prosecution will not be brought.
- (3) If the Authority advises the person that a prosecution will not be brought, the Authority must refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions if the person requests (in writing) that the Authority do so.
- (4) The Director of Public Prosecutions must consider the matter and advise (in writing) the Authority whether or not the Director considers that a prosecution should be brought.
- (5) The Authority must ensure that a copy of the advice is sent to the person who made the request and, if the Authority declines to follow advice from the Director of Public Prosecutions to bring proceedings, the Authority must give the person written reasons for its decision.

- (6) The Authority must include in its annual report, and publish on its website, a statement setting out—
- (a) the number of requests received by the Authority under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the number of cases in which the Authority has advised under subsection (2)(b) that a prosecution has been or will be brought, or will not be brought; and
 - (c) the number of cases in which the Director of Public Prosecutions has advised under subsection (4) that a prosecution should be brought or should not be brought.

40B Limitation period for prosecutions

Proceedings for an indictable offence against this Act may be brought—

- (a) within 2 years after the offence is committed or the Authority becomes aware the offence was committed; or
- (b) at any time with the written authorisation of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

41 Proceedings for an offence

- (1) The following provisions shall apply in respect of any legal proceedings for an offence against this Act:
- (a) Where an inspector or a delegate gives evidence that that inspector or delegate suspects that—
 - (i) particular dangerous goods were involved in an offence; or

- (ii) writing or markings on any substance, article or container or on any label attached to any substance, article or container indicates or indicate that particular dangerous goods were involved in an offence—together with evidence of the grounds on which the inspector or delegate so suspects, and the court considers that the suspicion is reasonable, the particular dangerous goods shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been involved in the offence;

- (b) An original or copy made pursuant to section 19C by an inspector or a delegate of any entry in any document and certified by the inspector or delegate who caused such copy to be made to be a true copy shall be admissible in evidence and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, shall be proof of the particulars contained in the document;
- (c) Where an inspector or a delegate gives evidence that that inspector or delegate suspects that the vehicle or container to which the offence relates contained a quantity of dangerous goods greater than a quantity specified in respect of those dangerous goods or that class of dangerous goods under the regulations (whether that quantity is measured by mass or volume) together with evidence of the grounds on which the inspector or delegate so suspects, and the court considers that the suspicion is reasonable, the vehicle or the container shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have contained a quantity of dangerous goods greater than the quantity referred to in this paragraph; and

amended by
No. 31/2005
s. 15(a).

(d) Where an inspector or a delegate gives evidence—

- (i) that writing, markings or a label on a container to which the offence relates purports or purport to indicate the capacity, tare weight, origin, character, specification, ownership or date of manufacture of the container; and
- (ii) that the inspector or delegate believes that the writing, markings or label was or were applied to the container in the course of its manufacture or by the manufacturer of the container, or at a place where the container was filled or where dangerous goods were transferred into the container, together with evidence of the grounds on which the inspector or delegate so believes and the court considers that the belief is reasonable—the container shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be of the capacity, tare weight, character or specification or to be of the origin or ownership or to have been manufactured on the date indicated by the writing, markings or label.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) container includes anything in or by which any substance or article suspected by the inspector or delegate to be dangerous goods is wholly or partly cased, covered, enclosed, contained or packed.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, delegate means an officer of the Roads Corporation, member of the police force or officer or member of a fire authority who is acting or has acted pursuant to an instrument of delegation under section 10B.

42A Analyst's certificates

- (1) In any legal proceedings for an offence against this Act relating to an explosive or HCDG the production of a certificate purporting to be signed by an approved analyst with respect to any analysis or examination made by the approved analyst is, without proof of the signature of the person appearing to have signed the certificate or that the person is an approved analyst, sufficient evidence of—
 - (a) the identity or quantity or both the identity and quantity of the substance, article or thing analysed;
 - (b) the nature of any substance analysed including whether the substance is pure or a mixture of other substances;
 - (c) the result of the analysis;
 - (d) any other matters relevant to the proceedings that are stated in the certificate.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) do not apply—
 - (a) if a copy of the certificate was not served on the accused at least 7 days before the hearing; or
 - (b) if the accused, at least 3 days before the hearing, gave notice in writing personally or by post to the informant and to the approved analyst that he or she requires the analyst to attend as a witness.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2)(a) a copy of the certificate is deemed to be served on the accused under that provision if—

- (a) not less than 10 days before the hearing a copy of the certificate is lodged with the court of hearing which is authorised to make the copy available to the accused; and
- (b) notice in writing has been given to the accused that a copy of the certificate will be so lodged with the court.
- (4) Service of a copy of a certificate for the purposes of this section may be effected and proved—
- (a) in any manner in which service of a summons may be effected and proved; or
- (b) if the certificate was served with the summons and proof of service of the summons is by affidavit, by stating in the affidavit that a copy of the certificate was served with the summons.
- (5) If an analysis or examination has been carried out for the purpose of any legal proceedings for an offence against this Act the court may, in addition to any other order as to costs, make any order that it thinks proper—
- (a) as to the expenses of and remuneration to be paid for the analysis or examination; and
- (b) if the approved analyst has been required by the accused to attend as a witness, as to the conduct money of the analyst.
- (6) In this section, approved analyst means an analyst who is—
- (a) operating with the authority of a laboratory accredited by the National Association of Testing Authorities; or
- (b) approved by the Authority.

47A Forfeiture and disposal of HCDG, explosives or containers before conviction

- (1) Any high consequence dangerous goods or explosives or containers used for or in connexion with high consequence dangerous goods or explosives that are seized and detained by an inspector under Part II are forfeited to the Authority if the Authority—
 - (a) cannot find the owner of the goods, explosives or containers after making reasonable enquiries; or
 - (b) cannot return the goods, explosives or containers to their owner after making reasonable efforts.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not require the Authority to make enquiries if it would be unreasonable to make enquiries and subsection (1)(b) does not require the Authority to make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts.
- (3) If any high consequence dangerous goods, explosives or containers used for or in connexion with high consequence dangerous goods or explosives that are seized and detained by an inspector under Part II have not been forfeited, the Authority must return the goods, explosives or containers at the end of—
 - (a) 12 months; or
 - (b) if a proceeding involving an offence for the goods, explosives or containers is started within 12 months, the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), unless the goods, explosives or containers are forfeited, the Authority must immediately return any goods, explosives or containers taken as evidence to their owners if the Authority stops being satisfied that the continued detention of the goods, explosives or containers as evidence is necessary.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the owner of the goods, explosives or containers is not authorised to possess those goods, explosives or containers by a licence.

47B Court orders for forfeiture and disposal of HCDG, explosives or containers before conviction

inserted by
No. 67/2004
s. 12.

- (1) The Magistrates' Court may make an order or orders and findings under this section if—
- (a) an application is made in that behalf by the Authority, an inspector or a person authorised by the Authority; and
 - (b) it is proved that—
 - (i) a substance or article is or contains high consequence dangerous goods or explosives; or
 - (ii) a container is or has been used or is capable of being used for or in connexion with the import, export, manufacture, storage, sale, supply, use, handling, transfer, transport or disposal of high consequence dangerous goods or explosives; and
 - (c) the Court is satisfied that—
 - (i) unless the goods are forfeited to the Authority and either destroyed or disposed of, there is a reasonable likelihood that—
 - (A) a contravention of this Act will occur; or
 - (B) the goods will be used in connexion with an offence against this or any other Act; or

- (ii) it is in the interests of public safety that the goods are forfeited to the Authority and either destroyed or disposed of.
- (2) The Court may, upon the notice being given to those persons that the Court directs, order that the container or the whole or any part or parts of the high consequence dangerous goods or explosives are forfeited to the Authority and either destroyed or disposed of in the manner that is provided in the order.
- (3) The Court may also make a finding of fact as to—
- (a) the quantity of the high consequence dangerous goods or explosives produced to, or inspected by, the court, the quantity ordered to be destroyed or disposed of, the quantity remaining, and the fact that what remains is part of what was produced to, or inspected by, the court; or
 - (b) the nature of any high consequence dangerous goods or explosives produced to, or inspected by, the Court; or
 - (c) the nature of any container produced to, or inspected by, the Court.
- (4) The Court may also order that the quantity remaining of the high consequence dangerous goods or explosives be forfeited to the Authority and either destroyed or disposed of in the manner that is provided in the order when no longer required for the purpose of any subsequent proceedings.
- (5) The Magistrates' Court has power to—
- (a) give any directions; or

(b) authorise the Authority to give any appropriate directions—necessary to give effect to any order made by it under this section.

- (6) If a finding of fact is made under subsection (3), production in any subsequent proceedings of an order containing the finding of fact shall be conclusive evidence of the matters to which the finding relates.
- (7) If an order is made under this section requiring the destruction or disposal of a container or the whole or any part of any of the high consequence dangerous goods or explosives, the order may be executed before the end of any appeal period applicable under section 47C if a sample of the thing to be destroyed or disposed of is taken and kept until the end of that appeal period and the determination of any appeal made within that period.

inserted by
No. 31/2005
s. 20.

- (1) If the Crown is to be served with an infringement notice, or proceedings are brought against the Crown, for an offence against this Act, the responsible agency in respect of the offence may be specified in the infringement notice or any document initiating, or relating to, the proceedings (as the case may be).
- (2) In this section, the responsible agency in respect of an offence is the agency of the Crown—
 - (a) whose acts or omissions are alleged to constitute the offence; or
 - (b) if that agency has ceased to exist, that is the successor of that agency; or
 - (c) if that agency has ceased to exist and there is no clear successor, that the court declares to be the responsible agency.
- (3) The responsible agency in respect of an offence is entitled to act in proceedings against the Crown for the offence and, subject to any relevant rules of court, the procedural rights and obligations of the Crown as the accused in the proceedings are conferred or imposed on the responsible agency.
- (4) The person prosecuting the offence may change the responsible agency during the proceedings with the court's leave.

52 Power to make regulations

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to any matter or thing that by this Act is authorized or required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary to be prescribed for carrying this Act into effect including, but not limited to, the matters and things specified in Schedule 2.
- (2) A power conferred by this Act to make regulations may be exercised—
 - (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions or in relation to any specified case or class of case; and
 - (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised—
 - (i) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised or different provision for different cases or classes of case or different provisions for the same case or class of case for different purposes; or
 - (ii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition.

- (3) Regulations made under this Act may be made—
- (a) so as to apply—
 - (i) at all times or at a specified time; or
 - (ii) throughout the whole of the State or in a specified part of the State;
 - (b) so as to require a matter affected by the regulations to be—
 - (i) in accordance with a specified standard or specified requirement; or
 - (ii) approved by or to the satisfaction of a specified person or body or a specified class of persons or body;
 - (c) so as to incorporate or adopt by reference the provisions of any document, standard, rule, specification or method formulated, issued, prescribed or published by any authority or body whether—
 - (i) wholly or partially or as amended by the regulation;
 - (ii) as formulated, issued, prescribed or published at the time the regulation is made or at any time before then; or
 - (iii) as amended from time to time;
 - (d) so as to confer a discretionary authority on a specified person or body or a specified class of persons or body; and
 - (e) so as to provide in a specified case or class of case for the exemption of persons or things or a class of persons or things from any of the provisions of the regulations, whether unconditionally or on specified conditions and either wholly or to such an extent as is specified.

(3A) Regulations made under this Act—

S. 52(3A)
inserted by
No. 66/2008
s. 25.

- (a) may leave any matter or thing to be from time to time determined, applied, dispensed with or regulated by a specified body, specified person or specified class of persons;
 - (b) may confer powers or impose duties in connection with the regulations on any specified body, specified person or specified class of persons;
 - (c) may permit a person or body on whom a power or function has been conferred under the regulations to authorise another person or body to exercise that power or perform that function.
- (4) A power conferred by this Act to make regulations providing for the imposition of fees may be exercised by providing for all or any of the following matters—
- (a) specific fees;
 - (b) maximum or minimum fees;
 - (c) maximum and minimum fees;
 - (d) ad valorem fees;
 - (e) the payment of fees either generally or under specified conditions or in specified circumstances; and
 - (f) the reduction, waiver or refund, in whole or in part, of the fees.
- (5) Where pursuant to subsection (4)(f) regulations provide for a reduction, waiver or refund, in whole or in part, of a fee, the reduction, waiver or refund may be expressed to apply or to be applicable either generally or specifically—

s. 52

- (a) in respect of certain matters or transactions or classes of matter or transaction;
- (b) in respect of certain documents or classes of document;
- (c) when an event happens or ceases to happen;
- (d) in respect of certain persons or classes of person; or
- (e) in respect of any combination of such matters, transactions, documents, events or persons—and may be expressed to apply or to be applicable subject to specified conditions or in the discretion of any specified person or body.

S. 52(6)

- (1) The Authority must establish and maintain a register—
 - (a) defining the composition, quality and character of explosives; and
 - (b) classifying explosives.
- (2) The Authority may from time to time publish the register or a part of it.
- (3) A person who, except for the purposes of this Act or otherwise in connection with the performance of his or her duties under this Act, discloses to another person all or any part of the information in the register is guilty of an offence.
- (4) An explosive that is registered, defined and classified is, for the purposes of this Act, an authorised explosive.
- (5) A person who without the Authority's approval imports into Victoria, manufactures, sells, transports, stores, uses or otherwise deals with an unauthorised explosive is guilty of an offence.
- (6) A person who imports into Victoria, manufactures, sells, transports, stores, uses or otherwise deals with an explosive which the person represents as being an authorised explosive but which does not conform to the definition contained in the register is guilty of an offence.

55 Governor in Council may make Order with respect to dangerous goods

- (1) The Governor in Council may by Order published in the Government Gazette prohibit absolutely or subject to conditions or restrictions the manufacture, storage, supply, transfer, transport, sale or use of any dangerous goods when in the opinion of the Governor in Council it is expedient for the public safety to make the Order.
- (2) A person who contravenes an Order made under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

inserted by
No. 67/2004

55A Orders—general provisions

- (1) This section and sections 55B and 55C only apply to an Order made by the Governor in Council under section 9B that relates to high consequence dangerous goods.
- (2) An Order that specifies a date on which it expires or ceases to have effect, ceases to have effect on that day.
- (3) The Minister must ensure that an Order is published as soon as practicable after it is made in—
 - (a) the Government Gazette; and
 - (b) a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State.
- (4) A power conferred by this Act to make an Order may be exercised—
 - (a) by declaring dangerous goods to be high consequence dangerous goods by reference to—
 - (i) the concentration, quantity or the form of the goods; or
 - (ii) a formulation, mixture or compound of goods; or

- (iii) any other state, characteristic or quality of the goods;
- (b) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified case or class of case;
- (c) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which the power is exercised—
 - (i) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised, or different provisions for different cases or classes of case, or different provisions for the same case or class of case for different purposes; or
 - (ii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition.
- (5) An Order may be made—
 - (a) so as to apply—
 - (i) at all times or at a specified time; or
 - (ii) to all high consequence dangerous goods or to specified high consequence dangerous goods or a specified class of high consequence dangerous goods; or
 - (iii) as specified in both subparagraphs (i) and (ii);
 - (b) so as to require a matter affected by the Order to be—
 - (i) in accordance with a specified standard or specified requirement; or

s. 55B

- (ii) approved by or to the satisfaction of a specified person or a specified class of persons; or
- (iii) as specified in both subparagraphs (i) and (ii);
- (c) so as to apply, adopt or incorporate any matter contained in any document issued or published by any person or body whether—
 - (i) wholly or partially or as amended by the Order; or
 - (ii) as issued or published at the time the Order is made or at any time before then;
- (d) so as to confer a discretionary authority or impose a duty on a specified person or a specified class of persons;
- (e) so as to provide in a specified case or class of case for the exemption of persons or things or a class of person or thing from any of the provisions of the Order, whether unconditionally or on specified conditions and either wholly or to such an extent as is specified.

55B Variation and revocation of orders

- (1) The Governor in Council may make an order varying or revoking an order under section 9B.
- (2) A variation or revocation order takes effect when notice of it is published in the Government Gazette or on such later date as is specified in it.
- (3) As soon as practicable after making a variation or revocation order, the Minister must ensure that notice of the making of the order is published in—

- (a) the Government Gazette; and
- (b) a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State.

55C Making and varying of orders about HCDG subject to disallowance

S. 55C
inserted by
No. 67/2004
s. 14.

- (1) The Governor in Council's power to make an order under section 9B in relation to high consequence dangerous goods or a variation order under section 55B in relation to high consequence dangerous goods is subject to the order being disallowed by the Parliament.
- (2) Section 15 and Part 5 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 apply for the purposes of subsection (1) as though—
 - (a) an order were a statutory rule (within the meaning of that Act); and
 - (b) notice of the making of the statutory rule had been published in the Government Gazette when notice of the order or variation order (as the case may be) was published in the Government Gazette.

56 Codes of practice

inserted by
No. 78/1995
s. 7.

- (1) For the purpose of providing practical guidance to persons who may be placed under an obligation by or under this Act, the Minister may approve any code of practice.
- (2) A code of practice may consist of any code, standard, rule, specification or provision relating to dangerous goods and may apply, incorporate or refer to any document formulated or published by any body or authority as in force at the time the code of practice is approved or as amended, formulated or published from time to time.

s. 57

- (3) The Minister may approve any revision of the whole or any part of a code of practice or revoke the approval of a code of practice.

S. 57
inserted by
No. 78/1995
s. 7.

57 Proposed code of practice to be made available for public comment

- (1) Before approving a code of practice, the Minister must—
- (a) advertise the fact that the proposed code has been submitted to him or her for approval and that copies of the proposed code are available for public comment; and
 - (b) make a copy of the proposed code available to anyone who wishes to inspect it; and
 - (c) consider any comments on the proposed code submitted within the time allowed by the Minister.
- (2) However, the Minister need not do this if he or she is of the opinion that in the public interest the proposed code of practice should be made as soon as is practicable.

58 Procedural matters concerning codes of practice

- (1) The Minister must cause to be published in the Government Gazette notices of—
- (a) the approval of a code of practice;
 - (b) the approval of a revision of the whole or any part of a code of practice;
 - (c) the revocation of approval of a code of practice.
- (2) The Minister must cause a copy—
- (a) of every approved code of practice;
 - (b) if an approved code of practice has been revised and that revision has been approved,

S. 58(2)
amended by
No. 13/1996
s. 20.

of every approved code of practice as so revised;

- (c) if an approved code of practice applies, incorporates or refers to any other document, of every such document—to be made available for inspection by members of the public without charge at the office of the Authority during normal office hours.

- (3) An approved code of practice comes into effect—
- (a) on the day on which notice of approval of the code of practice is published in the Government Gazette or on such later day as is specified in the notice; or
- (b) if the code of practice has been revised in whole or in part, to the extent of that revision on the day on which notice of approval of that revision is published in the Government Gazette or on such later day as is specified in the notice.
- (4) An approved code of practice ceases to be of effect at the end of the day on which notice of the revocation of approval of the code of practice is published in the Government Gazette.

59 Effect of failure to comply with a code of practice

A person does not incur any civil or criminal liability only because the person has failed to observe any provision of an approved code of practice.

inserted by
No. 78/1995
s. 7.

60 Use of codes of practice in proceedings

If in any proceedings under this Act it is alleged that a person contravened a provision of this Act in relation to which an approved code of practice was in effect at the time of the alleged contravention—

inserted by
No. 78/1995
s. 7.

s. 60A

- (a) the approved code of practice is admissible in evidence in those proceedings; and
- (b) if the court is satisfied in relation to any matter which it is necessary for the prosecution to prove in order to establish the alleged contravention that—
 - (i) any provision of the approved code of practice is relevant to that matter; and
 - (ii) the person failed at any material time to observe that provision of the approved code of practice—that matter must be taken as proved unless the court is satisfied that in respect of that matter the person complied with that provision of this Act otherwise than by way of observance of that provision of the approved code of practice.

60A Authority may accept undertakings

- (1) The Authority may accept (by written notice) a written undertaking given by a person in connection with a matter relating to a contravention, or alleged contravention, by the person of this Act.
- (2) The person may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the Authority's written consent.
- (3) Neither the Authority nor an inspector may bring a proceeding for an offence against this Act constituted by the contravention, or alleged contravention, to which the undertaking relates.

inserted by
No. 31/2005
s. 22.

60B Enforcement of undertakings

- (1) If the Authority considers that a person has contravened an undertaking accepted by the Authority, the Authority may apply to the Magistrates' Court for enforcement of the undertaking.

- (2) If the Magistrates' Court is satisfied that the person has contravened the undertaking, it may make—
 - (a) an order that the person must comply with the undertaking or take specified action to comply with the undertaking; or
 - (b) any other order that it considers appropriate.

60C Power to give advice on compliance

S. 60C
inserted by
No. 31/2005
s. 22.

- (1) The Authority may give advice to a person who has a duty or obligation under this Act about complying with that duty or obligation.
- (2) The giving of such advice by the Authority does not give rise to—
 - (a) any liability of, or other claim against, the Authority; or
 - (b) any right, expectation, duty or obligation that would not otherwise be conferred or imposed on the person given the advice; or
 - (c) any defence that would not otherwise be available to that person.
- (3) The Authority's power under this section to give advice may also be exercised by an inspector or, if the Authority authorises any other person to exercise the power, that other person.

Note

An inspector or other person exercising this power may not be liable for things done or omitted to be done in good faith (see section 51 of this Act and section 22(5) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985).

relevant Minister means the Minister for the time being administering the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1982.

(2) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the relevant Minister has direct and primary concern and responsibility for the administration of this Act and may exercise for that purpose all the powers and functions of the Minister or the Authority under this Act or the regulations with respect to activities carried out under—

(a) the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1967 of the Commonwealth; and

(b) the Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1982.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) and only for those purposes, this Act applies as if—

(a) any reference in any other section of this Act or the regulations to the Minister or to the Authority (including any reference deemed to be a reference to the Authority) or to the relevant Director-General were a reference to the relevant Minister; and

- (b) any reference in any other section of this Act or the regulations to an officer or employee of the Authority were a reference to an officer or employee of the public service.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply to any power or function or responsibility of the Minister relating to codes of practice or the making of regulations.
- (5) On and after the commencement of section 21 of the Accident Compensation (Occupational Health and Safety) Act 1996—
 - (a) any delegation or other instrument or other document made, issued or given under this Act or the regulations before that commencement by the relevant Director-General is deemed to have been made, issued or given by the relevant Minister;
 - (b) any action taken or decision made under this Act or the regulations before that commencement by the relevant Director-General is deemed to have been taken or made by the relevant Minister;
 - (c) any application made or notification given to the relevant Director-General under this Act or the regulations before that commencement is deemed to be an application made or notification given to the relevant Minister;
 - (d) the relevant Minister may continue and complete any other continuing matter or thing commenced by or against the relevant Director-General under this Act or the regulations and existing immediately before that commencement.
